PARKING PASSES

Controlled By: Boston Convention & Exhibition Center (BCEC)

Exhibiting Company: The BCEC has agreed to waive the “each separate entrance fee” during the move-in and the move-out only. You will pay once and be able to go in and out as often as you need on a given day.

Parking Passes will be available to exhibitors for the nine days of the show.

You may purchase parking passes at the ticket booth of the parking lot during the move-in of the show. The last day to purchase parking passes will be the Friday of the move-in. Once the show has opened, passes will not be available. These passes save money for those exhibitors who need to go in and out during the course of a show day. These passes cannot be used during the move-in and the move-out.

Daily Parking Rate: Parking is $18.00 per entry. Oversized vehicles are $36.00 per entry. Valet is $30.00. Available to purchase at the Registration Desk.

Available: On-site at the ticket booth.

PUBLIC TRANSPORTATION

The BCEC is steps away from the MBTA's Silver Line World Trade Center stop, which is the same subway line that services Logan Airport. It's also a 15-minute walk from South Station, one of Boston's major transportation hubs. South Station provides local services via bus, subway (Red Line), and the regional Commuter Rail, plus service across the country through Amtrak and bus.

Via the MBTA:

- MBTA Silver Line SL1 route to World Trade Center Station.
- Exit at the World Trade Center Station, and take the elevator up to Level 2. Follow directions to BCEC/World Trade Center Avenue.
- Take a left onto World Trade Center Ave, to the BCEC across Summer Street.

For more information visit: <https://www.mbta.com/>

From South Station:

- BCEC can be approached from South Station via bus, rapid transit bus, taxi, or by foot.
